第 6 問題 13 点

問 1	ウ ( 5 点 )
問 2	Like the author, we should motivate students by setting high standards and encourage them to “never miss an opportunity to be fabulous.” This approach inspires students to go beyond meeting minimum requirements and instead aim for their very best. By removing performance limits and not focusing on rigid grading rubrics, the author creates an environment where students feel empowered to take ownership of their efforts and embrace creativity. This encouragement taps into their intrinsic motivation, resulting in surprising and extraordinary achievements throughout the course, as they consistently exceed expectations.
